LAST TRAIN LOAD OF AMERICAN OFFICIALS DETAINED IN BERLIN

U. S. SAILORS STILL HELD BY GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—It is officially announced that an inquiry will be sent to Germany through the Spanish embassy in Berlin regarding the delay in departure from that city of the second trainload of former American officials. The train should have left Munich for Switzerland early this week carrying 86 former consuls, their families and other Americans.

The only information so far received by the state department came from former Ambassador Gerard and Minister Stovall of Berne. The message stated that the second train would depart some time the latter part of this week. Officials here refuse to believe that Germany is purposely delaying the departure of this train.

No official report has been received by the state department that the Berlin government has released 72 American sailors taken prisoners by Germany when the vessel, Yarrowdale, was captured. Protests against their detention may be sent at once. Officials here further said no instructions had been forwarded warning Americans to leave Austria. Discussing the Paris report to this effect they said that Ambassador Penfield might have acted upon his own initiative.

NORTH END SCHOOL BUILDING WILL BE OCCUPIED MONDAY

The work of installing the seats in the north end school building is in progress and will be completed in readiness for the opening of the building for school on Monday morning when it will be occupied by the grades from both the Moore house on Second avenue and the Kingston school. It is also possible that the new colored school building will also be ready for occupancy on Monday or early next week, as the seats for it are now being delivered. These buildings were to have been occupied several weeks ago, but unforeseen delays arose and made it impossible to take possession of them until the present time.

Parents of children who are now attending school in the Moore building on Second avenue or the Kingston school should bear in mind that next Monday morning they will be transferred to the new school building at the corner of Ridgewood avenue and Cypress street.

COWBOYS MURDERED BY THE "GREASERS"

HACHITA, New Mex., Feb. 16.—Two troops of the Twelfth cavalry are patrolling the Mexican border in the vicinity of the Corner Ranch where last Monday three American cowboys were seized, carried away and murdered by the Mexicans. Bodies of the cowboys were found across the Mexican line yesterday.

SUBMARINE WARFARE TO REDUCE COST OF FOODS

GERMANS MAY BE STARTING A NEW OFFENSIVE

MEDICAL SOCIETY MET AT ORMOND

The Volusia County Medical society, of which Dr. Frederick J. Walter, of this city is president, met Thursday night at the Hotel Ormond as guests of Dr. J. B. White. Members were present from Deland, Daytona, New Smyrna and Port Orange.

SANTIAGO STILL HELD BY THE INSURGENTS

MANY REBELS KILLED

HAVANA, Feb. 16.—Many rebels were killed as a result of a desperate battle between the insurgent and government troops at Hoyo-Colorado which is only 17 miles west of Havana. The clash took place late last night.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Two American warships are in Cuban ports today. The gunboat, Petrel, entered Santiago, which is held by the insurgent forces, and explored the harbor for mines, finding none. The message signed by the rebel commander, General Fernandez, who is in charge of the land forces occupying Santiago, and sent to Minister Gonzales yesterday stated that the harbor had been thoroughly mined.

A recent dispatch to the United States Navy department said that comparative quiet reigned in Santiago today. The U. S. N. repair ship, Dixie, is anchored in Havana harbor. Altogether, the latest developments in the revolutionary situation are not regarded by Washington authorities as alarming, but American warships will be held in Cuban waters as long as there appears the slightest danger to American interests. Minister Gonzales stated that so far there had been no destruction of property and foreigners had not been interfered with.

HAWAIIAN MUSIC MOST FASCINATING OF ALL

Mark Twain, after his visit to the Hawaiian Islands, said: "The music of the Hawaiians, the most fascinating in the world, is still in my ears and haunts me sleeping and waking. I can still hear the pulsing of the surf at Waikiki, and see the plummy palms drowsing by the shore, the garlanded and leaping cascades, and this music fills me with the spirit of the woodland solitude." Just as this music fascinated the beloved American humorist and author, so it has captivated thousands of people from both hemispheres who annually stop at the island. The Hawaiian songs run to harmony rather than to mere melody, and yet at the same time there is no well sustained theme in them. Much of the novel tone quality and individuality of the Hawaiian music is due to the steel guitar. Another instrument, the Ukelele, built of a rare and valuable wood known as Koa, no other wood produces the same deep and mellow sound. Fortunately for those who cannot visit these lovely lands, Helen Louis and Frank Ferera, the great instrumentalists of the Hawaiians, and who have made many records for the Victor and other phonograph companies, will appear personally in a Concert given by the International All-Star Concert company at the New Daytona theatre, on Monday and Tuesday.

EGG VARIATIONS

SPANISH OMELET. — Four tablespoons of salt water pepper, salt, two tablespoons of butter. Melt the butter in a clean frying pan. Beat yolks of eggs, add the water. Beat whites and fold into yolks. Fry on one side until brown, set in hot oven to brown top. Serve with or without tomato sauce on a hot platter.

Drooped Eggs on Celery Toast. — Use the outer stalks of a bunch of celery, wash well, cut in small pieces and stew in salted water until very tender. Then drain, press through a puree sieve and season the pulp thus obtained with salt, white pepper, celery salt, butter and cream. Do not add too much liquid, as the puree must be thick. Heat over hot water, spread thickly on squares of crisp toast and lay on top of each a neatly poached egg. Dust the yolk of the egg with a bit of paprika and serve immediately.

Mixed Ham and Poached Eggs. — Chop one pint of cold ham fine and rub it to a smooth paste, add one tablespoonful of melted butter, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, salt and pepper to taste and two beaten eggs. If too dry moisten with a little cream, but do not have it too soft to shape. Heat in a frying pan just enough to warm through, letting it dry off if too moist. Form it on a hot platter into a flat round, hollow the center, leaving a ridge of the mixture round the edge. Keep it hot and put three or four poached eggs in the center.

Creamed Pears and Eggs. — Put into baking dish a layer of butter, sea-salt pears, a layer of sliced hard-boiled eggs, and so on, cover all with a cream sauce made with two large spoonfuls of butter and one and one-half tablespoons of flour. Blend and mix until it is smooth, then add one cup of milk, spread top with bread crumbs, baked with nuts or butter. Brown in a quick oven. You can use half quantity, using two eggs and one-half cup of milk.

Egg Bread. — Cut stale bread into thin chips and saute in good lard and butter or lard and butter until delicate brown, to three cups of bread chips use two eggs, beat well and add one-half cup of milk, pour over bread in pan and stir while frying until golden brown crusts form, season well.

Amusements

"VANITY"

A great moral lesson is taught in "Vanity," the new Popular Plays and Players production starring the exquisite little European actress, Emmy Wehen, and released on the Metro program. This stirring five-act feature will be shown at the Crystal theatre Saturday.

"Vanity," which is from the pen of one of America's greatest dramatic writers, Aaron Hoffman, shows the folly of a girl's allowing her imagination to run riot on the subject of beautiful clothes.

Phyllis is employed as a model at Martell's, where her duties are to try on beautiful gowns to display to fashionable customers. She becomes dissatisfied with her own cheap garments and her poor lodgings. Wanting more money with which to buy clothes and also to befriend an unfortunate girl friend, she tries to obtain it by gambling. When she loses, the chief of detectives, who has had her under scrutiny, manages to have her discharged, and forces her to assist him in securing a confession from a young man whom he believes guilty of murder.

Although the man has not committed the murder, Phyllis secures from him a damaging admission, and he is arrested. It is then that Phyllis discovers that she loves him, and she moves heaven and earth to establish his innocence. How she secures his freedom and wins back his respect and affection is told in the most powerful and intensely dramatic photodrama ever written.

Good Japanese Custom.

Polite Japanese never have the grip because they commit "iki wo hiki," that is drawing in their breath sharply, a salutary custom which one doctor has declared incomparable as means of grip prevention, the idea being that Japanese are careful as to where and on whom they breathe and so keep the percentage of germ distribution at a rather respectable low figure.

DOVITAM?

A CONVERTIBLE FOOD AND CATALYST.

DOVITAM is the natural nutriment, par excellence, for "the healing of tuberculosis processes" as it presents, in organic form and availability, a calcium salt to aid the infected organism to restore essential calcium balance.

DOVITAM is a natural liquid food prepared from four week old squabs, retaining the bone (calcium) and neutral tissue (phosphorus),—brain, spinal cord, nerve tracts and ganglia. It has proven to be of marked chemical value in the feeding of neurotics. It nourishes where other foods fail to nourish.

DOVITAM'S role is that of a catalyst. Its association with other foods—protein, fat and carbohydrate—aid in the utilization of all, making the whole food intake more promptly, physiologically utilized as energy and in tissue construction, more completely hydrolysed, converted and appropriated.

GOODLY NUMBER GO TO FIRST PARENT- TEACHER'S MEETING

FORTY-EIGHT BECOME MEMBERS OF ORGANIZATION—MEETINGS
TO BE HELD ONCE EACH MONTH.

The first meeting of the Peninsula Parent-Teachers' association met on Thursday night at the schoolhouse on Halifax avenue with about 75 interested people in attendance. Before the close of the evening 48 of these turned in their names as members. No organization of this kind has ever been formed before at the local school, and it is thought that much good will be derived from it. The following people addressed the meeting, giving their ideas about the question of forming the association: W. E. Hatch, S. L. Jackson, Harry A. Hurn, Miss M. E. Brown, Lester A. Hall, Frank W. Smith, John J. Treadwell, W. T. Baker.

After these talks a constitutional committee was appointed with the members, Mrs. Wesley Herrick, Homer E. Wakefield and Mrs. Rembert. Those present were then entertained by a soprano solo, "Bird in the Apple Tree," by Miss Annie McDonald; Miss Quattlebaum's class in a pantomime, "The Waking Flowers;" and a violin solo by Miss Dorothy Clarke.

The officers of the society were then elected: Harry A. Hurn, president; Miss M. E. Brown, vice-president; Mrs. H. T. Parsons, secretary; Mrs. Wakefield, press-secretary; Homer E. Wakefield, treasurer.

It was decided to hold the meetings of the organization on the third Thursday evening in every month and J. L. Tomlinson, Lester A. Hall and Mrs. J. S. Barbe were made the members of the executive committee.

PENINSULA CHORUS HAS FINE MEETING

Twenty singers of Daytona Beach and Seabreeze met Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Shelly, on Grandview avenue and organized a peninsula chorus which will hold meetings once each week in the future.

U. S. Shelly was made chairman of the society, and other officers were elected as follows: Directors, Mrs. W. R. Wharton and W. N. Manchester; secretary, Joseph I. Green; treasurer, L. Z. Burdick; accompanists, Miss Kate Hotchkiss and Mrs. C. A. Randall. Committees were appointed to look after the purchase of music and to obtain permission to use the school auditorium for practices. After an hour's discussion of the club's purpose and aim the meeting was adjourned and some work put on the practicing of Ciro Pinsuti's "Spring Song," and Joseph Barnby's "Sweet and Low," under the direction of Mr. Manchester.

The Shelly residence was made to ring with music for a half hour or more after which the singers adjourned for the evening, first accepting with thanks the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Shelly to meet at their home again next Monday evening. The chorus will probably number at least 30 at the next meeting and includes the best singers of the peninsula.

UNIQUE DANCE GIVEN AT THE SEASIDE INN

Social prestige at the Seaside Inn Thursday night depended on being "tacky" and one was simply not there if one wore a costume conventionally correct according to fashion's decree. From 8 until 11 o'clock the dining room floor, cleared for dancing, was a bewildering maze of unique costumes, that changed their minds a half dozen times to please their whimsical wearers. The dance, given by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Glenn, for the hotel guests and visitors, was a hilariously delightful affair and was quite the most enjoyable event yet given at the popular hostelry.

The dance opened with a grand march led by Mrs. John E. Penfold, of Jamestown, N. Y., and J. P. Glenn. An amazing creation was Mrs. Penfold's costume, that started out with the best intention to be smartly correct from the standpoint of 1927, but yielded to the lure of modern fashions with startling results. Mr. Glenn must have laid aside his plow for a few minutes, to come to the dance and was perfectly at ease in his blue overalls, that did their utmost but failed by several inches to reach his boots. A number of clever figures were introduced following the march, and in the last Mrs. Penfold led the ladies in a march forming the letter "S," while the men formed the corresponding "L." The kiddies enjoyed a "real grownup" party for between each figure there was a game and prizes were given for the "tackiest" little girl and boy. Little Miss Helen Godfrey, as Sis Hopkins, with wired pig tails flaunting ribbons of every hue and a much too small frock, captured the girls' prize, while Rudolph Godfrey, a replica of a demure little maiden, was awarded the boys' prize. Both prizes were musical toys.

Following the cotillion the dancers enjoyed a hop until 11 o'clock, when the judges, who were Mrs. J. T. Hayden, of Chicago; Mrs. R. S. Beck, of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. T. W. McLean, of Keokuk, N. Y.; Madame Glenn, of Lexington, Ky., and Mrs. George H. Moody, of Lockport, Ky., announced their decisions, awarding prizes to Mrs. J. S. Hutsell and John E. Penfold. Mrs. Hutsell was wearing a costume that was not content with huge rosettes of blue ribbon for trimming, but demanded many yards of flowered pink cretonne, and while her shoes could not agree whether black or white was the proper color for such a costume, her head dress cast its vote unanimously for pink roses. John E. Penfold was a little country boy and though his hat was so small that it was scarcely visible to the naked eye, his flowing red tie and calico trousers were generously large. Mrs. Hutsell's award was a mechanical goose and Mr. Penfold was given a bewhiskered coconut man.

Other notable costumes were worn by Miss Dorothy Baker, who was a charming gypsy; Miss Victoria Baker, who must surely have stepped from the cover of Vogue; Mrs. A. W. Mills, a Topsy whose psyche aspired to untold heights; Mrs. M. L. Baker, who could have been no other than Ty Cobb; Miss Beatrice Baker, picturesque in her Colonial costume; Mrs. Glenn, who left her chum to dance with Mr. Stausherry, smartly correct in English riding clothes—that is, until one glimpsed his coat; Mrs. H. W. Stall, who would have created a sensation on Broadway; Miss Amelia Fellman, who intended to be a demure maid in white and changed her mind in favor of a sash of yellow crepe paper; and Miss Schodell, who was a delightful Quakeress. representation of a girl of 1920 was unusually clever and Mrs. Horne's caricature of a society girl was also notable. Miss Shmett was a twentieth century milk maid. Many other striking costumes were noted on the floor. Refreshing fruit punch was served during the affair, and an excellent program of music added to the success of the enjoyable event, which was attended by 50 couples from Seabreeze, Daytona and Daytona Beach.

Hops Used as a Vegetable.

Hops, which are not recognizable in the form we use them, were eaten for themselves as a vegetable by the Romans of old, and still are by the Bavarians, who choose rather than the blossom, the tender top shoots of the plant and prepare them in much the form of an asparagus salad.—Exchange.

Argument Hard to Answer.

Many a native of the Hawaiian Islands has a precarious knowledge of English, picked up from every source imaginable, and of which he is inclined to be proud. He airs it with and without provocation, and occasionally with startling effect, as the wife of the visitor missionary discovered. She said to the man-of-all-work: "I suppose you have no cows in these islands?" "No cow? How—get milk no got cow?"

PERFECTS A NEW

Orville Wright Expects to Show
Safe as Automobile Through Novel Principles.

Dayton, O.—The airplane made as safe as the automobile—that is the dream of Orville Wright, who, with his brother Wilbur, now dead, gave man dominion over the air a decade and a half ago. That dream is said to have become a reality with his new stabilizer, for which patents are to be applied for within a few weeks.

Never prone to talk much, Orville Wright is even more reticent than usual on the topic of his latest inventions. With patents not obtained, naturally he will not divulge secrets until it is assured that he will reap the rewards of the service. On the question of what it will do, however, he is not so secretive. He believes aircraft will be as safely and easily piloted as the most humble "flivver."

His new stabilizer substantially rejects the gyroscope heretofore always deemed necessary as a fundamental. Instead it enters the domain of electricity. By a unique arrangement of batteries, augmented by a pendulum swinging in a liquid bath and a minor propeller placed almost directly over the pilot's head, absolute, unswerving, automatic stability is said to be maintained.

Following a series of experimental flights Mr. Wright said:

"I am more than satisfied with its work now. All I had to do was to steer the machine. The stabilizer gave me a perfect balance during the entire flight. It did all the 'banking' on the turns and righted the machine on every dip."

When asked if the new stabilizer was in any way similar to the one patented some time ago, he replied that the first device was not to be compared to the new one.

EXCHANGE CIVIL CAPTIVES

British and Germans Over Forty-Five Years Old to Be Freed After Protracted Negotiations.

London.—After protracted negotiations through the medium of the United States arrangements have been made for the exchange of German and British civilian prisoners over forty-five years old. About 4,000 Germans are interned in the United Kingdom and 700 British civilians are interned in Germany. Whether the prisoners will reach their respective homes depends on the success of the admiralty in finding a neutral steamship on which to make the exchange.

Preparations are being made to break up the camps for Germans on the Isle of Man and those established for British civilian prisoners in Germany. Only 2,200 of the Germans interned in the United Kingdom expressed a desire to return to Germany. If the opportunity offered many would prefer to go to America.

MISS IMOGENE YOUNG

Miss Imogene Young, daughter of Representative and Mrs. James Young of Texas, a debutante, is decidedly one of the most popular of the season's buds. She has the beauty, vivacity and charm which have made Southern girls score so heavily in the present Democratic regime.

PEACE PAGEANT AT THE PALMETTO CLUB

"Peace Day" was fittingly observed at the regular Thursday afternoon meeting of the Palmetto club, when a large number of the members and their friends enjoyed a very pretty program, in charge of and directed by Mrs. Smith G. Young.

A very interesting and able talk was given by Dr. James J. Hall, director and lecturer of the American Peace society. Treating his subject in a very tactful way Dr. Hall illustrated the crying necessity of peace, his kindly voice and pleasing personality calling forth to his hearers with much force.

Following Dr. Hall's discourse a very pretty and expressive "Peace Pageant" was given. First and foremost came the "God of War" represented by P. C. Rogers, who in a thundering voice called all to attention with his proclaiming "I am War!" Following in his wake were his unfailing attributes famine, crime and pestilence, personified by Mrs. C. E. Gardner, Miss Brainard and Mrs. Herman Intemann. "Peace" in flowing white robe entered portrayed by Miss Florence Brock-enridge, followed by Miss Lee Bowers as "Justice," "Soldier" by H. A. Intemann; "Prosperity" impersonated by Miss Ruth Lyon; "Wisdom" by Mrs. H. V. Stillman. A dialogue was then presented by the group, a battle of words between "War" and his followers, with "Peace" and her court. "Peace" was triumphant and drove "War" from his pedestal, becoming dominant.

Miss Mabel Crippen as "Priscilla of New England," Miss Adelaide Young, as "South," Miss Sarah Young, as the "Miner," Miss Anna Mabbett as the "Cow Girl of the West," Miss Marion Mabbett, as "Florida" then entered in order given, followed by the "Chinese Girl" represented by Miss Ruth Stewart; "Ireland," Hazel Holland; Leota Coburn as the "Dutch Girl"; Nella Carter as the "Indian Girl"; Adella Towne as "Italian Girl," and Miss Anna Orr as a "Swedish Girl" each presented her version of peace in song.

Triumphant over all came "Liberty" charmingly represented by Mrs. W. R. Wharton, clothed in white with the emblem of the United States as her "Legion of Honor." Her sweet, clear soprano voice was heard to advantage in her song of "Peace." The accompanists of the afternoon were Mrs. Mark Stevens and Mrs. C. A. Randall.

Appropos to the needs of the hour was this splendid pageant, which called forcibly to light the harrowing details of war and the happiness and prosperity attending peace. Each and everyone of the group deserves much favorable commendation for the heartiness and the good spirit with which they entered this dialogue.

Mrs. Smith is to be congratulated upon her splendid efforts which were crowned with marked success, and all

WILBUR BY THE SEA

WILBUR-BY-THE-SEA, Feb. 15.—Among the prominent and influential guests being entertained at the Toronita hotel are Hugh White and Thomas McQuillan, who came from Toronto, Canada, to escape the severe cold. Mr. White is a partner in the White Shoe company, one of the most prominent wholesale companies there, while Mr. McQuillan is a representative of the Dominion Textile company, which is the largest cotton manufacturing concern in Canada. These enterprising gentlemen are ardent disciples of Izaak Walton and the people of Wilbur-by-the-Sea are looking forward to having an over-abundance of fish throughout their stay.

The guests of the Toronita hotel greatly enjoyed a Valentine party Wednesday evening. The hours were merrily whiled away, and an endless chain of features were introduced, including serpentine, brown skin, prize and Paul Jones dances.

Among the favorites at the Toronita hotel is Miss Ella Corr, of Chicago. Miss Corr is extremely fond of athletic sports, and is a frequenter of the tennis court as well as a participant in other sports.

Among the pleasant acquisitions of the Wilbur colony are Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Bates, of Ovid, Mich., who are making their initial visit to Florida. Dr. Bates, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bates, is taking a forced vacation, as he broke his index finger which prevents his attending to his large practice. Dr. Bates states that although he was unfortunate in one way, on the other hand but for this accident he might not have seen this beautiful city, for which he has great admiration.

Auto luncheon and dinner parties are increasing in number at the Toronita hotel, and this pretty dining room seems to fascinate the motorists, who not only invariably return themselves, but tell their friends as well.

Meat Eating.

Americans are the greatest meat eaters, the per capita consumption being 172 pounds a year in this country, 119 in England, 113 in Germany, 80 in France and Holland, 64 in Austria-Hungary, 50 in Russia and in Spain 49, according to the Indianapolis News.

Fond Mother's Pride.

"I suppose your son was well prepared for college," said the casual friend. "Yes, indeed," replied the fond mother. "The president wrote the faculty could not teach him anything, so they permitted him to come home." —Richmond Times-Dispatch.

To Avoid Colds.

In brief, if you wish to be absolutely immune from colds of all kinds, and their more serious sequels, here is the recipe: Eat abstemiously of non-stimulating food. Fast occasionally. Avoid table salt, wooden underclothing and foul air, and harden the body by exposure to the air and sun, and occasionally to cold water.

CLARENDON SCENE OF MANY DINNER PARTIES

The Clarendon dining room was gay with many informal dinner parties Wednesday night preceding the Valentine dance in the ball room. The red and white color motif was used in the table centerpieces, which were Enchantress carnations and roses, and the Valentine note was carried out in the dinner in many attractive features. In one party were: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mather Smith, of Oakland, Fla.; Mrs. J. C. Mackin, of Highland Park, Ill.; and Miss Clara Macklin, of New York City. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Olson, of Boston, Mass., entertained Mrs. J. Hayden and Miss Helen Hayden, of Chicago, Ill., who motored over for the dance. Dr. C. I. Bennett had as his guests Mr. and Mrs. W. Bushnell. A party of four was composed of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Marx, of Waterville, Me.; Miss Reed, of Bath, Me.; and Miss Baker, of Boston, Mass. Others noted were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hervey and Mrs. L. L. Walker, of New York City; Mrs. C. P. Harley and Miss Lillian Chenover, of Danbury, O.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis, of Eau Claire, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Davis, of Neenah, Wis., compose an automobile party who are guests at the Clarendon for a several days stay en route down the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Boyce, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., are late guests at the Clarendon, where they will spend the next two weeks.

An informal luncheon party in the Dutch grill Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Gano, of Denver, Col.; Mrs. H. W. Forbes and child, of Boston.

Jesse Armstrong, Augustus Zahner, Fred Ward, and Walter Slack, were a foursome from the Clarendon noted on the College Arms golf links at Deland yesterday. The four played 36 holes of golf. Mr. Armstrong was in excellent form, playing in 87, while the best score for the tournament on Tuesday was 85.

Daytona, O. people who are touring the east coast and are guests at the Clarendon during their stay in Seabreeze are E. R. Latin, Miss Amanda Latin and E. R. Connelly.

The Minneapolis group at the Clarendon is one of the most congenial at the hotel and since the arrival of E. H. Wellcome and W. D. Gregory several days ago, their activities have been even gay than usual. Yesterday a party composed of Mr. and Mrs.

Low Gillett, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. L. Baker, H. J. Baker, F. H. Wellcome and W. D. Gregory, all of Minneapolis, were in the hotel for the day, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Walker, also of Minneapolis.

The younger set at the Clarendon last night of a most popular group, yesterday when Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mather Smith, with her mother, Mrs. George Mather, of Atlanta, Ga., left for Palm Beach, to spend the next month at the Royal Palm Hotel. During her stay at the hotel Miss Mather's winsome personality was an important factor in the gaiety of her set.

Season guests at the Clarendon are welcoming Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Morrison, of Toledo, O., who arrived yesterday. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Morrison spent their winters at the hotel and have many friends there who are delighted that they have returned. As president of the Continental Trust & Savings Bank, Mr. Morrison is a financial power in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shannon, Jr., of Shelbyville, Ky., who are guests at the Clarendon for a several days en route south, are so delighted with the pretty resort they will stop for a longer visit on their way home.

A pretty complement to some of the loveliest members of the dining set at the Clarendon was the farewell dinner N. L. Lewis, of Chicago, given for Miss Margaret McCarty Wednesday night in the Clarendon grill. The table centerpiece was a graceful arrangement of flowers and roses. For this received as guests Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Walker, of New York City; Mrs. C. P. Harley, of New York City; and Mrs. W. W. Morrison, of Toledo, O.

ENJOYABLE YACHTING

TRIP TO THE INLET

A very pleasant trip was enjoyed to the inlet on Wednesday when Captain James H. Baker entertained a party of guests from the Windsor hotel on board the "Adelaide II," with Capt. H. L. Baker in command.

Fine weather made the short cruise down the river one to long remember, the guests enjoying the balmy air by sitting upon deck and watching the passing and interesting scenery upon both shores. At noon a palatable luncheon was served upon deck, a very novel and charming feature of the party. When the inlet was reached, those wishing indulged in fishing, and a good catch was brought home.

Among the party aboard were Mrs. M. Van Trump, Miss Johnson, Mrs. H. Harvey, Dr. L. R. Sattler, Misses Ella and Anna Sattler, H. Vogel, Master B. Shriver, George Bostwick, A. Wolf, C. Vincent, P. Killallen, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gardiner.

PROMINENT VISITOR
CALIFORNIA CLIMATE

"Daytona is the prettiest place I have ever seen," said Capt. J. O. Probasco, of Muir, Mich., during an interview with a reporter for the News yesterday. Continuing: "I spent the winter in California three years ago but I do not think I shall ever go back again; there is too much of an everlasting sameness. The weather never changes, one day is exactly like another. Florida has an indefinable charm that California lacks—here the beauty of the state seems natural, there one feels that it has been created by man, there is no subtlety to the attraction of the latter state, it is too glaringly self-evident. I like a cloudy day every now and then, it makes one appreciate the sunshine more."

There is no more interesting personality at the Prince George than Capt. Probasco, Civil War veteran who served under General Custer during three years of his hottest campaigns, and later was in General Connor's command in the Indian warfare of the plains, immediately following the Civil War. With the characteristic reticence of the soldier who has served in epoch making campaigns, Capt. Probasco declined to talk of Civil War experiences, contenting himself with praise for his opponents—"Those Southerners fought like demons, when we heard that well-known war cry of 'Ki-Yi' we knew we were in for fight without quarter." Concerning the warfare of the plains, Capt. Probasco talked readily, and his reminiscences were filled with the romance of the pioneer days of the west, when the stage coach was the only method of travel and a journey meant days and nights of hazardous hardships. Eighteen days and nights of continuous traveling over 1200 miles of almost unbroken wilderness to reach Atchison, Kansas, from Salt Lake City, Utah. "We often ate and slept in mud huts that were scarcely more than one big room, with the animals stabled in one corner, but any rest and change was luxury after the stage coach," said the veteran. At old Fort Reno on the Powder river, built by Capt. Cole's command of which Capt. Probasco was a member, a band of Indians were trapped and killed in the engagement which followed, and when searched photographs in their possession showed them to be the band whose burning at the stake of a division of American cavalry taken prisoners has aroused the west.

Enlisting as a volunteer at the age of 18, Capt. Probasco rose from the ranks through loyal service and achievement won in the face of supreme danger. With Mrs. Probasco, he will be a season guest at the Prince George hotel, having visited Daytona for the first time this winter, although he has spent two winters on the west coast. "My only regret is that I waited so long to come here," he concluded, "but having made my first trip, I expect to continue to come every year."

GERMAN-AMERICAN
ANNUAL MASQUERADE
A BRILLIANT EVENT

The third annual masquerade ball of the German-American club and the ladies' auxiliary of that society, given last night in the Arcade amusement hall was a brilliant social event and largely attended, 500 or more persons being present and more than 50 being in costume.

The hall was specially decorated for the occasion, the dance floor being very prettily over arched and during the grand march the lights were turned off and a spot light used on the masqueraders with very pretty effect.

The grand march was called at about 10:00 o'clock and was prolonged for some time. It was greatly enjoyed by the spectators and those participating evidently found much pleasure in it. Many intricate and pleasing figures were used and the march was very pretty throughout. The costumes were varied and there were many odd and attractive ones among them, as the judges found when they came to award the prizes.

The judges for the evening were Mrs. L. C. Goodale, of Cincinnati, O., Frank Sweeney, of Hartford, Conn., and H. W. Loebe, of New York City.

The prize for the prettiest costume was awarded to Mrs. Marie Schmidt, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is spending the season here with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt at Schmidt's hotel. Mrs. Schmidt was attired in white, artistically ornamented with bright pom-poms.

The prize for the funniest costume was awarded to Mrs. E. P. Intemann. Mrs. Intemann was dressed as an extreme suffragette and acted as well as looked the part.

The prize for the most original costume was awarded to Miss Nella Carter, of Daytona Beach, who represented an Indian or campfire girl.

For men, the prize for the finest costume was awarded to D. N. House, of Dayton, Ky.

For the funniest costume, the prize was awarded to Oswald Wehner, of this city.

The prize for the most original costume was awarded to H. A. Intemann, winter resident of this city, who represented to perfection a Jewish peddler, with wares displayed upon a tray.

Two little tots, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gartner, attracted much attention, being prettily costumed as miniature clowns.

The music for the dancing was furnished by the Crystal orchestra, augmented by members of the Prince George and Despland orchestras.

GREAT CHANGE IN PAST THIRTY YEARS

The following breezy description of his experience in Jacksonville, on his way to Daytona, was written by Ira E. Harris, cashier of the Indian Head National bank, of Nashua, N. H., who is a guest at the Williams hotel:

"Believing 26 degrees below zero a little too strenuous, we decided to seek a warmer climate. As all Roman roads led to the Eternal City, so most southern roads point toward Jacksonville. Thirty-odd years have elapsed since my last visit, and I find the place transformed from an ordinary town to one of the most beautiful and prosperous cities of the south.

"Southern railroads trains are proverbially behind time; some affirm that none have arrived on schedule since the Civil war. Be that as it may, it was 11:00 p. m. when our early evening train sighted the lights of Jacksonville. As the noise of our street-fronted hotel room precluded all thoughts of sleep, we were changed to rear apartments, evidently reserved for inebriates, and from there to comfortable and satisfactory quarters, so it was well past midnight when quiet brooded over the Harris family. All went well until 2:00 o'clock when the front in our toilet tank gave way, causing the water to spurt with considerable force over our bathroom.

"Persistent telephoning finally resurrected a mummified bellboy, who eyed conditions in a melancholy way, finally allowing he could do nothing. My lurid language, however, finally penetrated his leaden cap and in due course a colored mechanic appeared while after rolling up his instruments, hydroplaned into the miniature law, repaired the clog, baled out the room and at 3:00 a. m. we started on the last leg of our first night's rest in Florida.

"Next morning that we might in speed the city with leisure and decorum, I was as was ordered, which proved to be in natural wood, silvered from work, upholstered in the palest white. The motive power being of the early Kenmore type, two cylinders, two burning type, which the chauffeur had to constantly diminish to quit walking in their sleep in order to maintain even a second gear speed.

"But nothing undaunted we proceeded through broad and well paved streets, adorned with grade houses and pretentious business blocks, the only buildings, disconcerting attention. Then there is the large and up-to-date hospital in which a ward is said to be supported by the management of the elegant hostesses, where guests are carried to regain consciousness after perusing the size of their hotel bills.
